ESTIMATED POPULATION DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY BAM EARTHQUAKE OF DEC. 26, 2003

A comparison of areas of intense shaking and population density

 Zones based on the European Intensity Scale of 1998

- Zone VI - Slightly Damaging
  - 50,000 Affected
- Zone VII - Damaging
  - 3,500 Affected
- Zone VIII - Heavily Damaging
  - 12,000 Affected
- Zone IX - Destructive
  - 80,000 Affected

Total Estimated Population subjected to intense groundshaking: 145,500

Source: International Institute of Earthquake Engineering and Seismology, Tehran, Iran.

http://www.iiees.ac.ir/English/eng_index.html

NOTE: The names and boundaries on this map are not necessarily authoritative. The names do not represent official U.S. Government names and designations. This map is for general reference purposes only and should not be used for navigation as it lacks sufficient quality control and field verification.

Map produced by USAID/OFDA, December 31, 2003
Please send comments to GIU@OFDA.net